HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MAY 15, 1942

NUMBER 28

USO, [United Service Organization] Starts In Jones County for $2,380

Complete plans are now laid for raising the quota given Jones County in the nation wide campaign to raise $32,000,000, or approximately 10 cents per capita. The drive opens May 10 and runs through July 4th.

Tate May, Hamlin, county chairman, and Warren B. Tayman, of Stamford, county vice-chairman, are appointing their various committees and distributing publicly material. Regardless of the fact that the drive continues until July, plans for Jones County are to have the drive completed and "over the top" within a week from the opening date, according to Mr. May.

All Defense clubs throughout the county are being asked to co-operate and will conduct the campaign in their own communities, thus giving each person a chance to do his part.

USO clubs are operated throughout the nation and in many foreign places, serving where ever United States troops are concentrated. Mr. Tayman, urging a complete and immediate response of the campaign, states, "The people of Jones County are being given an opportunity to help their own boys in this drive. While this county does not have an USO center, we must remember that we have our full share of men in all types of service, and this is an opportunity to show them full appreciation. Jones county man power, eligible for active duty, have not been slackers; let us respond as completely."

R. G. Giles is chairman for the Stamford territory drive. Miss Lennie Greenway, Hamlin, has been named County treasurer.

In announcing this year's U S O campaign, Mr. May emphasized that more than 4,000,000 men would presently be in the armed forces of the United States, and that monthly visits of sailors, soldiers and Marines to United Service Organizations club houses already exceed two million. Service for troop-in-transit is also being carried out with great success, and meeting with hearty response from all types of enlisted men. Remote and isolated fields of operation are visited by trucks, completely equipped and laden with foodstuffs and countless articles which are welcomed by men away from home.

Folks of Hamlin, let's all give something for the entertainment and comfort of our soldier boys. Ducers of cotton, and therefore all of what the people live upon.

Mayor Issues Cotton Week Proclamation

WHEREAS, the American cotton industry is making great and valuable contributions to the nation's total victory program by supplying numerous military and civilian needs for fiber and food, and

WHEREAS, the sturdiness and long life of cotton fabrics make their use by the civilian population directly in line with the national program for the conservation of materials, and

WHEREAS, the wearing of fresh, clean, washable cotton is an acknowledged and important stimulant of personal morale,

NOW, THEREFORE, as mayor of the City of Hamlin, Texas, I do hereby proclaim the period from May 15 to May 23, inclusive, to be NATIONAL COTTON WEEK, and urge my fellow citizens to join me in buying wisely from the stocks of durable and washable cottons of our local merchants, thereby making this Cotton Week another forward step in our victory program.

Joe L. Culbertson, Mayor

T. H. Price who has been very ill for several weeks, is reported greatly improved and should be able to get out among his friends.

Hamlin People Played Host To 100 Camp Barkeley Soldiers Sunday

As was indicated in last week's Herald, Hamlin had a creditable number of soldier boys over from Camp Barkeley for the past week end, and especially for the outstanding Sunday of the year, Mother's Day.

This effort to do something that would show our appreciation of the boys in service was sponsored by the Baptist Church but many others joined in to help entertain them, and while this was the first time on a big scale for Hamlin to entertain our soldiers. It proved very successful. If it should be done again, many valuable features of care and entertainment would be improved upon. To see the unlimited delight the boys had on their faces to be free from the army restrictions out of the dusty camp, mixing with mothers, fathers, brothers and sisters, and seeing folks like they have back home, was enough pay for any man or woman who used their time, their cars, their homes, food and various other expenditures from Saturday afternoon till late Sunday.

The report of this outing for the army boys is for several purposes, and we shall tell it as it happened and ended.

First, the committee was a bit disappointed in not getting a chartered bus or buses, or some kind of trucking conveyance. This left transportation up to private cars. The round trip meant about 220 miles of use. Those going with cars included: Tate May, Mac Brundage, Bowen Pope, Mrs. Garland Tumlin, J. W. Ezell, H. O. Cassle, W. C. Russell, Mrs. J. H. King, C. Alexander, Rev. H. E. East, J. W. Hines, Henry Albritton and George Malouf.

In addition to this, regular bus tickets were bought for eight men by T. E. Harden and Mrs. Tumlin.

Early Sunday morning, B. B. Campbell, using Eddie Jay's car, and W. L. Fletcher Jr., using his father's car, went over and brought nine boys to Hamlin.

The entrance to the camp was easy as a pre-arrangement had been made. If a car did not have "Hamlin" on it, all one needed to do was say, "Hamlin." A certain number of men had been told that they could get passes to Hamlin and to be ready by 2:30 P. M. at the Club Service building. When Hamlin cars began to arrive it seemed the whole US army was there anxiously waiting to go "somewhere." Young men, older men, Southerners, Northerners, and several nationalities, including Chinese, Indians, Mexicans, and Europeans, all looking spick and span, proud and clean. Maybe the number seemed larger than it was because some had not seen so many uniformed boys looking for somebody to play host to them.

Anyway, it would have been a hard heart that did not feel sympathy for those boys, who had been in the camp just long enough to be homesick, and were all keyed up to go places, just like children. They knew, and we knew there was not room in those cars to haul them to Hamlin, so the look of disappointment began to tell on them, and the feeling of sympathy welled up in every Hamlinite's heart, that almost caused tears. Some of us had gone for just FOUR and then we began to say "We'll take five," and as the moments went on, the boys said "Can you haul six, we'll sit on each other to get to go." So SIX it was, and that made SEVEN, tires or no tires.

It was evident that ALL could not find room to ride, and no boy who had dressed up to go fishing could be more disappointed. Some Hamlin folks said, "We'll take one load over and come back for more." That was too much as time would not permit. There are times in the lives of men when they can not find words to express their gratitude, and this seemed to be the case with the soldier boys.

Hamlin was reached by 5:30 and when homes that were to take 2 or 4 and there stood 5, 6 or 7, the hosts said "What shall we do, we don't want to give up a single one, the boys said, "Just let us sleep on the floor, in a chair, anywhere, it's a change and we'll like it." So!

A good feed awaited them at the Baptist church, and after registering, and finding more homes, the boys were directed to the basement where loving mothers, some with boys on ships, in camps, in distant lands across the waters, waited upon the tables, in a peculiar silence, and one could often detect a tear under their eye glasses, when those keen-eyed boys looked up and said "thank you."

Arrangements had been planned to entertain the boys in the Lake Parks, where there were spacious lawns, boats, fishhooks, horse-back riding, and various other attractions and later games in which everyone could take a part were directed. Some of the boys met girls and there is no way better to "swamp" a soldier boy than a pretty girl. One soldier man, past 40 years kept his eye on a little girl tot and was heard to remark "Gee I keep looking at that child because I have several nieces and nephews, and I think of them so often." Some of the boys caught themselves calling the older Hamlin men "Dad". Hamlin fathers and mothers tried to play just that for every one of the boys, and the brothers and sisters did likewise (especially the sisters). Imagine how a girl feels to see a boy in uniform while her own brother or brothers are "somewhere" in a similar dress and maybe yearning for company in some distant land? So why not be considerate of the visiting soldier?

After toeing the mark in the camp, jumping to orders, bugle calls, and sleeping in tents on narrow cots, it must have been a relief to the men to get on a soft mattress, in a room with shades, pictures, soft chairs, flowers and perfume, and then be told, "Just sleep on boys till you are called about 8:00 A. M." Then oh my! Breakfast "at home." Bisquits, toast, ham, eggs, and everything that makes a boy's appetite tighter. Well, that was something.

Now let your ear down close to the lips of some folks, and they will be heard saying, "Some of those boys are toughs, maybe single, maybe married, maybe they gave the right names and maybe not." Well, buddy not all of the guys and feminites about Hamlin are angels by a jug full. Suppose occasionally a fellow becomes your "lot" to entertain and he is not an angel, what of it? He is still doing more to win a war for freedom than some persons who might pull up their pants legs full of guile to keep from soiling their hems on a soldier boy who may die for your safety. No sir-e-e buddy, the man in uniform is good enough to sit at your table if he is good enough to fight that American tables may continue to have plenty. Let 'em in while you can. If any son it not as good as he ought to be, he should be better by having the comforts and encouragement of your home.

Sunday was a big day, for the boys. Many of them came to the Baptist church wearing red roses, and quite a few with white. "Mother" for all of them, be they pure Anglo-American, Indian, European, was on their minds, and somewhere on memory's walls were fond pictures as they worshipped in the morning services, regardless of what church edifice they were in. Sitting with new friends, men, women, children, being honor guests was quite different to that of being in an audience of one drab uniform. In the audience were men with devotion, charming voices, members of their home choirs, bible readers, scholars as well as humble underprivileged boys. Yes, this was truly a cross-section of the young manhood of the United States, 23 States were represented, and Hawaii. But most of them were from the North and they found the usual Texas generous hospitality and open friendliness.

Quite a few of the men were carried to hotels and cafes for the Sunday lunch (but all had to be back in camp that night. So the week end for them in Hamlin closed with a repeated attempt to tell the people how much they enjoyed being there.

LETTER FROM CHAPLIN

Mr. Tate May,
Hamlin, Texas.

May I take this opportunity to convey to you, and through you, to the members of your committee, the gratitude and thanks of the chaplin's corps of the 90th Infantry Division, for the fine outing that you gave our boys on the Mother's Day week end? It meant a great deal to the boys, and I'm sure that when they learn of it, it will mean a lot to the Mothers of these boys too, that they could spend the day within a family circle, even though far from their homes.

Such week ends in private homes, as you provided, constitute a great morale builder. It was thus, a fine friendly and patriotic thing to do; quite in accord with the Spirit of Hamlin.

Most sincerely yours,
Chaplin Hamilton H. Kellogg

Colored Men to Play Ball Sunday, May 16

The colored fellows, so says Geo. Rivers, Manager of the Hamlin Black Eagles, are going to play Anson's Black Birds in Hamlin City Park Sunday at 3:30 P. M.

Rivers says some of the proceeds will be given to the Jones County USO.

Admission 15c and 25c.

Rush To Get Your Driver's License

Austin—Nine hundred thousand Texas drivers' licenses have been issued under the new driver's license law since last October 1st, State Police Director Homer Garrison announced today.

This is considerably less than half the 2,250,000 licenses which are expected to be issued by the end of September, Garrison said, warning that an unmanageable rush will occur late in the summer unless the rate of applications is speeded up immediately.

"The Driver's License Division is issuing only 160,000 licenses a month now, and is prepared to give rapid service," Garrison said. "If the applications continue to come in at their present rate, the number of applications each month will have to jump to 250,000 or 300,000 in July, August and September to meet the deadline."

Applications now are being accepted from any holder of an operator's license regardless of its serial number.

Feed Burns

O. L. Cohorn who lives on the Delk farm east of Hamlin, lost a fine stack of bundled feed Sunday night. The stack was near the residence and for a time the high wind threatened the house, barn and all out-buildings.

The Hamlin Fire Boys were called and fortunately enough, water was at hand to soon save the other stuff.

Mr. Cohorn is truly grateful for the part the Hamlin firemen played and offered them a nice check for $5.00.

Cotton Week Parade

4:30 P. M. Thursday

In an effort to emphasize the importance of cotton in this Hamlin community, a number of the Hamlin merchants are sponsoring a "Cotton Style Street Parade" on Hamlin's main street at 4:30 P. M. Thursday of next week.

It is too early now to indicate just what all this parade will have, but the dry goods merchants, especially are inviting all who will to furnish something. There will no doubt be plenty of band music by Director Jenkins and his High school musicians.

Cotton products will be the theme and the parade will be just as good as the public can make it. Don't forget, 4:30 P. M., next Thursday.

Corporal Fred H. Brunson, son of S. T. Brunson of Hamlin, has been promoted to grade of sergeant, according to an announcement at Midland Army Flying School, largest of the U. S. Army Air Corps' bombardier training schools.

D. L. Riddle Died Thursday, May 7th

D. L. Riddle, who had lived in Hamlin since 1918, passed away at his home in Northeast Hamlin at 12:35 A. M., Thursday, May 7, at the age of 73 years. He was a native of Tennessee.

Mr. Riddle and his family moved to Texas in 1902 and to Hamlin in 1918. He was a farmer and in later years was engaged in mattress making. Surviving are his wife, who before her marriage was Mary Majors of Tennessee; three sons, W. A. Riddle of Amarillo and J. W. and M. G. Riddle of Hamlin; four daughters, Mrs. Lillie Bonard of Amarillo; Mrs. Jim Perry of Swenson; Mrs. Elsie Early Ashley of Groom, and Mrs. L. E. Tankersley of Hamlin. Two sons died in early life. Also there were twenty grand children and ten great children.

Mr. Riddle was a member of the Church of Christ and at that church the funeral was held on Thursday.

The Barrow Company had charge and interment was in East Cemetery.

Local Golfers Started Tournament Wed., 13

O. G. Harvey, tournament chairman for the Lake View Golf Club, announces the starting of the four weeks City Tournament the past Wednesday.

All entrants pay $1.00 each to be used as prizes, and all prizes will be paid off in War Stamps.

Another thing, Bert Pribble, president of the Club, will pay the Red Cross $1.00 each for every golf player who enters—this is Bert's personal contribution. (Buddy) here is your chance—play after paying your fee and the larger the number of entrants, the larger the prizes.

If you do not understand all about it, talk with O. G. Harvey.

Members of First Aid Class Completes Course

First Aid Class of 41 members finished under the direction of W. A. Haynes, of Anson. Seventeen members of this class are now taking the Advanced course in First Aid, which is being taught by Mr. Haynes in Anson.

Plans are being made to have an Instructors Class taught in the near future in Stamford or Hamlin.

Editor and Mrs. T. Reynolds of Smackover, Arkansas, came Tuesday for a short visit with their father, J. W. Muncy and sister, Miss Mary Muncy. Mrs. Reynolds says it looks as though her editor husband will be called into the army and she is determined to keep their Smackover paper rolling as long as paper is available.

"Cotton Freshness" for Fighting Trim Key Word In Hamlin For One Week

Every year for some time a certain week of each year has been designated as "COTTON WEEK". Beginning today, Friday May 15, through the 23rd of May is "Cotton Freshness" week.

If there is a "Cotton Community" in Texas it is Hamlin. This county would be dealt a hard blow if it had no cotton. Jones County is generally high up in the list of producer of cotton, and therefore all people of this section should be ready to co-operate with every concerted effort to encourage the use of our chief product.

In some countries they have "Onion Week," or "Grape Week," or some other name characteristic of what the people live up.

In Hamlin, with J. E. Moody, as the leading sponsor, Hamlin merchants will feature everything possible in cotton wearables next week. So watch for the posters saying "Cotton Freshness". That means that there is no other material in all the world that makes for neater, fresher, easy-wearing, easy kept clothing than cotton. There is no other plant in all the world that affords more things for humanity than does the cotton plant. And with all that being true, there is perhaps no other section of all the world that produces more or better cotton for general purposes than right here in West Texas.

There is no plant of agricultural fields that gives humanity more valuable than does that of cotton. It is a southland product by nature.

So with the opening of this Friday and all next week, watch your fellowman, or woman, and see whether or not they are using cotton or some other product. Note how clean and cool the cotton wear is this next week. Notice in the stores, in the homes, everywhere and see what is made of something besides cotton, and then figure out a way it may be changed to "Cotton Freshness". Is there any dress prettier than a cool fresh cotton frock? Take especial notice of the kinds of stockings the women wear during the next few days. Here's a tip . . . believe it or not . . . ladies really look neat and fresh in cotton products . . . and pretty hose are the key point to be attained in the attractions of any woman.

Make your presents this week in some kind of cotton goods. Really Texas people alone can add many thousands of bales of cotton consumption if they would insist on "it must be cotton." Wouldn't it be fine if automobile tires could be made entirely out of cotton? Shoes and hats can be made nicely out of cotton.

So next week and for that matter, let's see how completely we can dress in all-cotton. Only the soles of your shoes need be other than cotton. Watch the windows for cotton ideas, cotton displays.

PURPOSE OF COTTON WEEK

Cotton Week is not a commercial gain week. It is an educational week. An effort to create in the minds of the "smart" that it is "smart" to wear cotton fabrics. It is clean to wear cotton clothes. Cotton clothes are easily laundered, and easily creased, and inexpensive.

"A Bit of Paper"—

A crumpled bit of paper was sent speeding to a lonely but determined youth in one of Uncle Sam's Naval Training stations today, and officers who read the hurried scrawl the scrap of paper bore, believe an American classic was penned in the parting moments of a father and son.

As noble as the advice Hamlet received from his father and as American as the flag was the crumpled letter which the boy lost in the Navy Recruiting Station in the Post Office at Wichita Falls.

The letter was from Jim H. Canon, Paducah, Texas, to his 19-year old son, Jimmy Henry Canon Jr., and written to the boy before he left Wichita Falls to come to Dallas for his final examination and to be sworn into service.

Brief and poignant was the letter of an American to an American son: "Dear Son:

"I am sending you the papers which give my consent for you to join the Navy. I wish you the best of luck, and I want you to write your mother as often as you can. We both hate to see you go, but you go with our best wishes. We want you to try to be one of the best men in the Navy.

"Son, I would like for you to try and qualify as a gunner, then maybe you will have the privilege of firing a broadside right where it will do the most good—into a Jap ship.

"You are passing out of our hands now and will be under the care of the U. S. Navy. Always remember to obey your superior officers. Be honest, apply yourself one hundred percent to your job—and do that job well. It will be a long hard fight. We are counting on you and several million like you to do the job.

"Answer right back, we will be wanting to hear from you.

"Love,
DAD"

Jimmie was transferred to a Naval Training Station on April 4, his letter turned up in the middle of Navy files at Wichita Falls today. How it got there, no one knows. But the letter is going on to Jimmie—it should be a big help in trying times to come.

"That letter," declared Lt. L. H. Ridout, Jr., officer in charge of the Dallas Recruiting Station, "is the type of encouragement boys need from home. America is just as strong as the number of dads and sons it has, like Jimmie senior and Jimmie Jr."

Jimmie and his father call Delvin, Texas, their home town and it is there the family reunion will be held when "Jimmie comes marchin' home."

Old Age Assistance Blind People And Dependent Children

Austin, May 6—Texas Old Age Assistance rolls for May gained by 2,419 recipients above all losses due to death and ineligibility, as compared with 1,643 the previous mo., increasing from 169,905 to 172,324 the Department of Public Welfare announced today. The department will mail next Friday, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday checks totaling $3,374,649, grants averaging $19.58. Received during April were 3,187 new applications for Old Age Assistance.

The number of blind persons to receive aid in May increased from 2,816 in April to 2,999. A total of $68,661 will be distributed in average grants of $22.89. The department received 194 new applications for blind aid during April.

The Aid to Dependent Children rolls continued to show the highest increase. A total of 2,986 families were added to the rolls to bring the April figure of 9,643 families up to 12,629 this month, representing 26,773 children. Grants for May average $20.73 per family and will total $261,806. The department accepted 3,093 new applications for Aid to Dependent Children during the month.

Mrs. Doc Griffin spent Mother's Day in Abilene with her son, Cleve Griffin and wife, and her daughter, Miss Agatha Griffin. Among other guests in the home was Mrs. Cleve Griffin's mother, Mrs. A. F. Ruth-erford.

Clyde Kite from Camp Wolters, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kite, spent the past week end with them in Hamlin, and enjoyed the association with the men from Camp Barkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Blythe and son of San Angelo were here Saturday and Sunday to visit Mrs. W. J. McGee and Rev. and Mrs. Dan Jones.

BOYD CHAPEL CHIRPS

By Mrs. James Ferguson

An all day meeting with dinner on the ground was held at the Baptist church Sunday. A group of Hardin-Simmons University students were in charge of both morning and afternoon services. Miss Brown, a missionary, brought the devotional followed by Rev. Moore who brought the 11 o'clock message. The afternoon devotional was given by Rev. Lacy Davis and followed with a message by Rev. Batie. Rev. Bobbie Fail directed the song services.

At the evening service, after a short playlet, "Appreciating Mother," given by home young people, Rev. Moore preached.

Private Boyd Cagle of Camp Barkeley and Mrs. Cagle visited in the home of Mrs. Willie Tabb Sunday. Mrs. Cagle remained for a few days visit. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Buster Easley of Hawley and Mrs. Maggie Easley of near Anson.

Mrs. J. E. Foot of Abilene visited the Boyd Chapel church services Sunday.

Mrs. Junie Brown of near Anson spent last week end with her sister Mrs. T. T. Bingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Maberry and family of Sylvester visited in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Holden and Mrs. I. E. McClure Sunday. Mrs. McClure, who has been quite ill for several days, is better at this writing.

Those visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cornelius Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Flennighon and family of Wise Chapel, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Easley and family of near Anson.

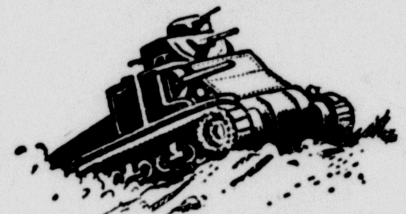

Mr. and Mrs. Fail of Hawley attended church services here Sunday.

Mrs. Clarence Hill of Hitson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Haight, who was taken to the hospital in Temple last week for treatment, is doing as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Holden and Carl Holden and family of Abilene attended a picnic of the Routh family Sunday at the Hamlin Park.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. McCray and little daughter Dorothy Helen of Idalou, came down for the past week end to visit old friends. Mr. McCray is farming near Idalou.

ATTACK! ATTACK! ATTACK!

America's attacking on both the fighting front and the home front today! We're giving the Axis a bitter taste of what's to come. We're fighting the inflationary 6th column that blows prices sky high here at home, too. And every one of us who saves at least 10% of his pay in War Bonds is an important soldier in the attack! Join the attack yourself!

COLOR HARMONY MAKES BETTER NEIGHBORS

Paint Styles Should
Harmonize With Other
Homes In Neighborhood

Your house must be considered in relation to other homes in your neighborhood if you want to get the best effect in color harmony. The "guide" below tells you which colors to use and which to avoid in order to make your home a "good neighbor."

YELLOW

Never use next to red, yellow, dark grey. Yellow kills dark grey and only favors yellow itself. This also means don't paint grey if your neighbor paints yellow.

WHITE

If all adjacent homes are in color and your neighbor's is white, don't repeat. It emphasizes the larger and belittles the smaller. If all are white, keep yours white too. One in color is just as offensive.

RED

Avoid red if your neighbors' houses are green or yellow. If many others on the street are red use red too as one odd colored house will not complement the others.

BROWN

Your house in brown is safe in all cases. Of course the trim should be carefully considered. Repeating the trim of your neighbor's home is particularly offensive.

GREEN

Watch out for adjacent red houses! The charm of green is not to be underestimated. It is beautiful when surrounded by "Aspen" or other light green trees or foliage.

TAN

Tan is safe everywhere except next to yellow. Yellow gives even rich tan a greyed effect. Exteriors of houses should always appear freshly painted even when rustic effect is called for.

Methodist Conference For Abilene District

The Abilene District Conference of the Methodist church was held in Albany the 12, and 13th. Dr. C. A. Bickley, district superintendent, presided over the meeting. Thirty charges of the district were represented. Entertainment was furnished by the members of the Albany Methodist church.

Dr. Angie Smith, pastor of the First Methodist church of Dallas, delivered the conference sermon on Tuesday night, and Dr. J. O. Haymes, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist church, delivered the message Wednesday at noon. Splendid reports were given by all the charges throughout the district. About 200 were in attendance. The next district conference will be held at Baird.

Those who attended from Hamlin, were Mrs. D. O. Sauls, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carlton, and Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Harrell. Those who attended reported a very helpful and enjoyable conference.

Cotton and Cottonseed Products For All Who Work and Fight For Freedom

Fortunately for all, December 7 found America with valuable stockpiles of cotton lint—with farmers who can produce cotton more abundantly, probably, than any other crop, with more than 400 Cotton Oil Mills equipped and ready to convert cottonseed into Cotton Linters for explosives—Cottonseed Oil for food—Cottonseed Meal, Cake and Hulls for livestock feed.

All of these products are helping win this war. BUT, they can also be produced abundantly—in far larger amounts than they are now being produced—so that all civilians, as well as all in our armed forces, may have an abundance of cotton and cottonseed products. Use cotton and cottonseed products for their familiar uses and for new uses to replace scarcer, costlier materials. Put cotton and cottonseed products on your "must use" list—during NATIONAL COTTON WEEK, MAY 15-23, and throughout 1942.

National Cotton Week Finds Us "In Fighting Trim" Producing for Uncle Sam and You

Your local Cotton Oil Mill, like all Americans, is proud to be playing an important part in winning this war. Our products are going into munitions on the battleline, and in the sea and air—into fats that keep Americans fighting and working—into the feeding of livestock that produce "Food for Victory."

We take pride, also, in being able to render efficient service to this community—in peace or war—and invite you to give us every opportunity to serve you more.

War Material Shortage Limits Telephone Service

You probably have heard about certain government restrictions on telephone service and equipment now in effect. We should like to tell you a little more about these restrictions—why they are necessary, and what they will mean to you.

The reason for them is simple and complete. They are to save materials which are needed to fight the war.

What will they mean to you, the telephone user?

If you have a telephone now, they mean no change except that in many Texas cities affected by war growth you may have to have other parties on your line. And, in all cases, you can't get an extension telephone in your home if you haven't one already.*

For people who have no telephones and want them, or for present users who move to new locations, we shall supply at least party-line service wherever there are now enough lines and switchboards. But in general, where new construction of this type would be necessary, we shall not be able to provide service.*

This will mean inconvenience and perhaps hardship to a few people now. As time goes on it will probably mean inconvenience and hardship to more people, but we need your help and sympathetic understanding in this important step to save the maximum of materials for the war.

Beside the great savings in materials already made by substitution and wartime engineering, the new restrictions will mean that more lead, iron, steel, zinc, copper, and rubber used in telephone equipment will now go into arms.

In spite of all this, and while telephone service may not be available to all who want it, we believe we can keep the service up to a high standard. At any rate, we shall do our level best. These difficulties are something that neither the government nor the telephone companies can help. They are part of the price of protecting liberty.

*Except for those cases where the need for telephone service has been recognized by the War Production Board as necessary for defense or public health, welfare or security.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY
WASHINGTON

May 1, 1942

TO THE PEOPLE OF TEXAS:

This week a new campaign for the sale of War Bonds and Savings Stamps is under way throughout the Nation. It is the War Bond Quota Campaign.

It is urgently necessary that you double the rate at which you are now buying War Bonds and Stamps. This will mean the sale direct to individual Americans of War Bonds and Stamps to the amount of not less than one billion dollars every month.

One billion dollars a month is the National quota. It is equal to one-tenth the combined incomes of all Americans.

This money is needed to buy the tools of war for your fighting forces. It will not pay for all of them. Our war expenditures now are at the rate of about FOUR BILLIONS a month, and they are growing daily. But a billion dollars a month direct from the people will make all-out production possible. Without it we cannot do our best; without it we cannot put forth our full effort.

It is desperately needed for another reason. We can't fight a war and at the same time live and spend as usual. There are not enough goods to go around — the things we buy with money. If we go on spending at the 1941 scale, we'll be robbing the fighting man to add to our own comfort or pleasure. We'll be driving up the cost of living for all of us. We'll be imposing dire hardships on our neighbors.

What is asked of you is ten per cent of your earnings — a tithe for Liberty. It is not a tax; it is not even a contribution; it is a loan at interest, for your use and protection later.

Your Government asks you to cut down your expenditures, TO SAVE — your boys on the firing line and in the training camps, through your Government, ask you to save so that they may have what they need to win YOUR WAR for you — America asks you to save; to SAVE TO WIN THE WAR; to buy War Bonds and Stamps up to not less than ten per cent of your income.

Is Liberty worth it? Is Democracy worth it? Is America worth it? I think I know your answer.

Sincerely,

H. Morgenthau Jr.

The above letter was sent to this newspaper by Secretary Morgenthau in Washington. We publish it in the interest of the War Bond Quota Campaign and earnestly recommend that all our readers do their share in the tremendous job ahead of financing the War effort.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

(By BOYCE HOUSE)

An open letter to Chas. A. Lindbergh:

"Last summer and fall, in long speeches over expensive nationwide hookups (I don't know who paid for them), you said that America was safe—that the oceans made an attack on us impossible.

"Many thousands of Americans—perhaps millions—believed you. As a result, half-hearted efforts slowed down our national defense.

"Then, on Dec. 7, Pearl Harbor gave the lie to your utterances and the blood of 3,000 brave Americans was shed.

"Since then, 50 American ships have been sunk within sight of our shores and many heroes sleep in the depths of the oceans which you said were our unassailable security.

"We have waited long and in vain for a confession from you that you were wrong—that you are sorry now and that you want to apologize to the people of your native land whom you tried to mislead.

"Don't you think, before you mingle freely with your fellow Americans, that you should openly and publicly acknowledge that you were a dupe, unless you want us to think you were worse?

"If you do not do this, then I—speaking as one American citizen who resents your words which helped to cost the lives of hundreds of American soldiers and sailors—shall ask of my government that you be placed in a concentration camp until the war, which you said couldn't happen, is over.

"Boyce House"

An Austin urchin has found an unusual way to pick up a bit of change. He enters the lobby of a hotel with newspapers under his arm—they are many hours old but they provide the pretext for his coming in. He goes up to a group and, singling out one of the men, he says:

"If I can tell you your first name your birthday, the name of your wife and the name of the first woman you ever loved, would it be worth a quarter and if I don't tell you all this, you don't pay me a thing?"

He says it all in one breath and the amused "prospect" says, "All right." So the boy tells him:

"Your first name was baby, your birthday was the day you were born, the name of your wife was Mrs. and the name of the first woman you ever loved was your mother."

The other men guffaw and the victim hands over the quarter.

"Since he is himself a wool growing Texas rancher and is also a governor facing an election campaign, we believe Governor Stevenson made a courageous as well as a sound statement the other day when he said the price limit set by administrators on wool is too high," says the Fort Worth Press, editorially. "There certainly is no war 'gimme' there. Perhaps Governor Stevenson and the other growers who agree with him remember the last war when wool prices skyrocketed and then plummeted so that the whole industry was upset. Governor Stevenson recognizes that too high prices mean inflation and that inflation means later trouble."

A former citizen of San Antonio, who now runs a hotel out on the Pacific Coast, says: "California is too far from Texas ever to amount to very much."

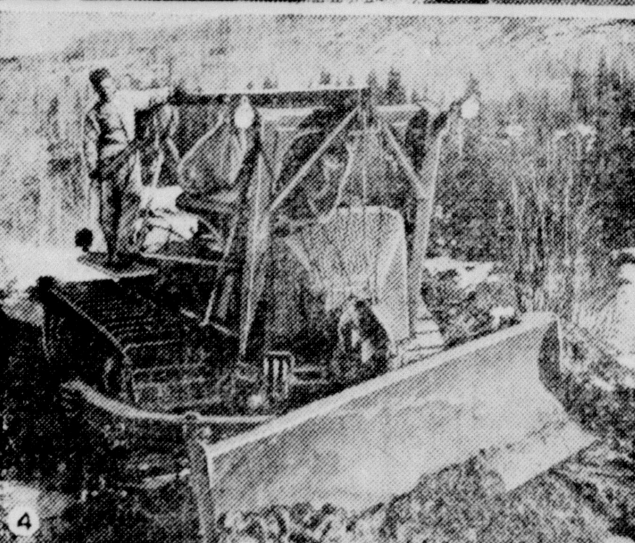

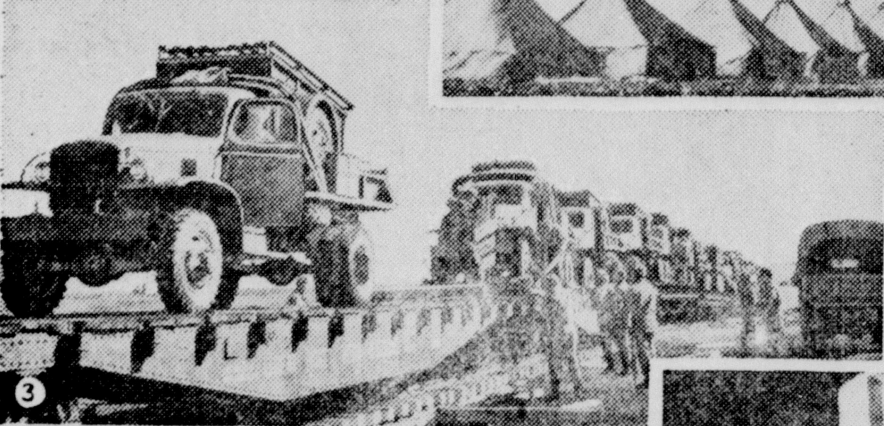

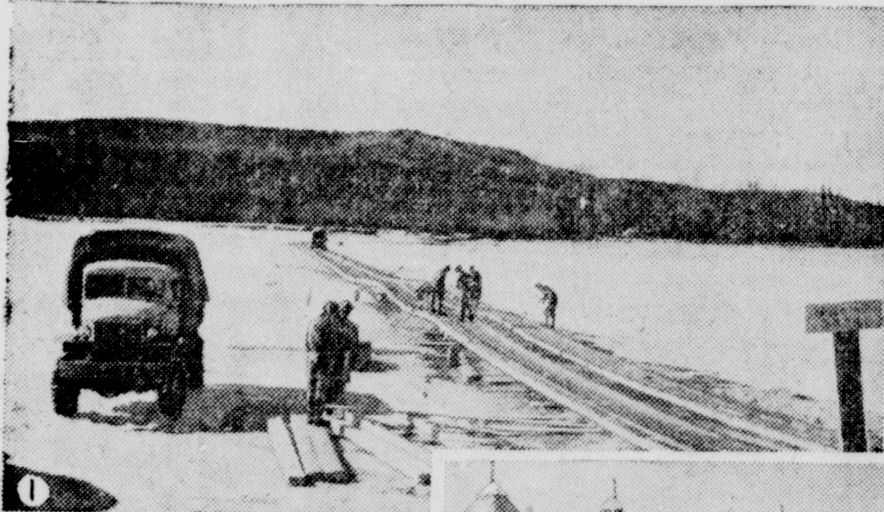

Being in Austin—especially when the legislature is in session—is like having a ringside seat at an unending, free show.

Notables, such as Kaltenborn, Senator Pepper of Florida, and Helen Keller who was born deaf and blind, are invited to speak to the legislature and the galleries are, of course, open to the public.

On one occasion, delegates of the Alabama-Coushatta Indian reservation in East Texas were visitors in the House of Representatives. They were in native costume. Several law makers were made honorary members of the tribe and were presented with Indian head-dresses, after which the red men gave several dances and the medicine man prayed that the new members of the tribe would be well and good, and kill "plenty deer."

Rugged Men, Mighty Machines Build U.S.-Alaska Highway Across Canada

ANOTHER United States-Canadian war cooperation project is being rushed to completion. It is the road starting at St. John in northern British Columbia, and connecting with Alaska. Adequate roads and rail facilities for the transportation of troops and supplies were existent up to Fort St. John, but now a land route from there on is opened across the Canadian wilds.

The United States Government is paying for the building and wartime maintenance of the highway and Canada is supplying all necessary facilities, including the right of way for the road. Canada previously paid for the building and maintenance of the completed airline from Edmonton, Alberta, to Alaska, which is now in operation.

In spite of the bitter winter weather, natural obstacles or human failings, the relentless drive to freeze the highway has pressed northward. Across frozen Peace River a plank highway was laid (Photo

1) to carry heavily-laden truck trains at a wary pace of three miles an hour. These trucks pick up supplies and road-making machinery at Dawson Creek (Photo 3), which is the end of railroad facilities. Giving up all comforts to facilitate speed, the Canadian truckers operate a non-stop, 36-hour run from Dawson Creek to Fort Nelson, virtually living in their trucks. These drivers relieve each other every 10 hours, sleeping during their relief period (Photo 5) in coffin-like boxes atop the driver's cab.

Typical of the hard-fisted, corner-cutting American engineers working against the terrific odds of a Canadian winter is Felix Murawski (Photo 2), of Oklahoma City. He strikes a pose that designates the engineer's defiance of the stubborn bush country. The engineers and workers live in tent colonies at the scene of their work. Although the temperature sometimes fell as low as 50 below zero, snowfall was light this year. The frozen ground gave way before expert hands handling bulldozers, caterpillars, graders and drag lines (Photo 4) as these hardy men carved out a narrow pilot road which now is being widened and surfaced.

And now, through the foresight and cooperation of two democratic countries, a practical link in continental defense between the U. S. and Alaska as well as a great improvement through a previously wild and rugged country is nearing completion.

Entertained With Picnic At Lake Cabin

On Friday evening the Optimists Club members honored their husbands with a picnic at the Lake cabin of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Vaughan.

Fried chicken, black-eye peas, pickles, corn, salads, rolls, cake, punch and bottled drinks were served buffet style.

After supper in games of 42, Mrs. Gerry Richardson won high score for the women and Dub Burgess and John Walton tied for the men.

Those present were: Messrs and Mmes. F. E. Barnes, J. C. Jenkins, E. J. Whaley, John Walton, Ross Fomby, Dub Burgess, Pat Marlowe, M. O. Kimmey, L. C. Barnes, C. B. McGough, Tom Vaughan, Mrs. O. G. Harvey, and Mrs. Gerry Richardson.

McCaulley H. D. Club

The H. D. Club of McCaulley met in the home of Mrs. L. B. Miers on May 6th.

Members answered roll call with "How to Make Friends."

After roll call recreation was given by Mrs. Oliver Lee.

The program was on "Consideration for Others."

The charm of fine manners was given by Mrs. J. A. Jackson.

Consideration for Others, round table discussion.

Miss Hipp, Agent, is being transferred to Coleman. Mrs. Della Fancher gave a quilt top. Mrs. Hendon furnished the cotton. Mrs. Kemp carded the batts, and the club donated the lining and did the quilting.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. C. Jackson. The agent will give a demonstration on cheese making.

Mrs. W. C. Lee's name was drawn for the kitchen shower.

The hostess served refreshments to the following visitors: Mesdames Ira Parker, Dave Maberry, Betty Jo Masser, Roscoe Perryman, Bonnie McCasland, Tom Nall, and Louie Jones. Members: Mmes. W. C. Jackson, Bill Maberry, Oliver Lee, Carrol Lee, D. F. Maberry, Ben Kemp, Frank Kemp, Sue Miers, Horace Barton, Della Fancher, Ted Abbott, Louis Boyd, Ellis Eivens, J. A. Red Cross Women Are Working Hard

A first aid instructors' school to serve five counties for Hamlin or Stamford, and effort to raise $400 Jones County's quota of $6,000 budget set for ten counties in Berkeley's Camp and Hospital Red Cross Service Council, were two projects receiving attention of Jones County Red Cross executive board in monthly meeting at Hawley, Monday night.

Byron E. Lewis, Stamford vice-chairman, presided at the session in the absence of O. A. Dean, Anson, chairman. Anson, Hamlin, Hawley and Stamford were represented in attendance.

Intense interest in first aid instruction and lack of certified instructors to meet class demands were pointed out by W. O. Haynes, Anson, vice-chairman and first aid instructor, and by Mrs. L. M. York, production and volunteer special services chairman. Jones County Chapter will attempt to allocate an instructors' school, to include Haskell, Stonewall, Fisher, Shackelford counties, for either Hamlin or for Stamford. A Red Cross official will hold the school which will prepare persons who have had standard and advanced first aid for teaching Red Cross classes. An advanced first aid class began in Anson Tuesday night to make eligible a group for the proposed instructor's course, and such a course has already been offered in Stamford.

Substantial production work in Hawley and in Hamlin was reported by Mrs. Fannie Meeker and Mrs. C. F. Butcher, vice-chairmen in those towns. Increased production in many communities was indicated by Mrs. York's report, with especial mention of the Busy Bee Sewing Club at Avoca which turned in 18 filled Red Cross kit bags in ten days.

Fifty dollars for storm-ridden Crowell was among disbursements of Jones County Red Cross Chapter shown in the treasurer's report sent in by Mrs. Stephen Bennett, Stamford. Balances are $422.17, production fund; $1,245.75, general fund; and $122.81, junior Red Cross fund. Besides the fifty dollars sent by the Chapter, Hamlin Red Cross workers sent several boxes of clothing for Crowell relief.

The county production room in Stamford is the site for June 8th meeting of Red Cross executive board, Room 13 in Oliver Street elementary school.

WISE CHAPEL NEWS

By Catherine Drake

We have had lots of sand the last two days. All the farmers are busy with their crops.

The writer has been out of her community the last two weeks. So news is scarce this week.

We are glad to see Mrs. Johnnie Agnew up and around again.

Miss Faye Neal spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reynolds of McCaulley.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Flenniken and family spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cornelius of Boyd Chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Neal and family spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. A. G. Bingham and family of Neinda.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bond and son of Flat Top and I. C. Bond of Hamlin took supper with their parents Sunday night, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bond.

Miss Juanita Reynolds of McCaulley spent Thursday till Saturday with Faye Neal.

Mrs. L. Bush of Hamlin spent Friday night with Connie Drake and sisters.

Mrs. Bush and daughter, Mrs. Lillie Wilemon and family left Saturday for Texas City to make their home.

Miss Joyce Hudson, a student in N. T. S. T. C., spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Hudson.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Parker and children of Dallas, are visiting her mother, Mrs. B. S. Ferguson.

POT SHOTS FROM McCAULLEY

BY GEO. DARDEN

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rhoten had as their guests their children and grandchildren on Mother's Day. They were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gist of Sweetwater, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson and son of McCaulley, Mr. and Mrs. George Rhoten and family of Rotan, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rhoten, Mr. and Mrs. John Rhoten of Plasterco; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mahaffey and children of Royston and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Meeks and children. All children were present except Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rhoten who visited in Abilene on Mother's Day.

Allie Ray Hennington, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Hennington spent Mother's Day with his parents. Also at home was a daughter, Emma Sue. Both are students at McMurry.

"What about citizenship grades?" an article appearing in "Texas Outlook," an educational journal, and written by H. P. Powers, Supt. of McCaulley schools.

Some one registered at McCaulley for their sugar ration books and carried with them cards along with stamp books. The numbers of the cards are 299855 and 299856. It is very necessary that these cards be turned in; otherwise owners of the books will be unable to get their books.

A large crowd attended the Mother's Day program at the Methodist church Sunday. Large pot plants were awarded to oldest and youngest mothers present. The oldest mother was Mrs. J. H. Brawner and the youngest was Mrs. Amuel Rector.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Massey of Plasterco have moved to Abilene where Mr. Massey will take up his work as salesman for a wholesale concern.

Nola and Dale Akins of Sweetwater, and Corine and Lillian Akins of Abilene spent Mother's Day in the home of parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Akins of McCaulley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brawner, E. C. Waldrop and Albert Jr. Gallaway attended the funeral of Charles Randolph at Three Rivers last Thursday. Mr. Randolph was a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Brawner.

The Boy Scouts of McCaulley, Boyd Chapel and Plasterco attended a Boy Scout Rally at Big Spring last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Kemp and her daughter of Roby visited parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kemp Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Huff of Hamlin were Sunday visitors in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hub Parker.

The McCaulley P-T A is very proud of the improvements that have been made on the stage of the High school. The front curtains have been purchased and will soon add further beauty to a remodeled stage. Mrs. L. E. Rector is to be congratulated for her successful year as president of the P-T A. She has again been elected president. Other officers elected are Mrs. Louis Boyd, secretary; Mrs. Levi McCollum, treasurer; and Mrs. W. C. Jackson, vice-president.

Walter Winchell was right when he said: "The best way to serve the Mothers who gave us life, is to serve the country that gave us liberty." How many bonds and stamps are you buying? It takes the citizenship of our great country to produce for the boys who are fighting for you and me. Let's not let them down.

McCaulley and community have had fine rains. In fact, it rained so hard that many farmers will have to plant over.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Rogers of Dallas have been visiting parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rogers in McCaulley.

After shooting the questions to Starr Inzer about his skinned nose and black eye, we learn that Starr was after a calf on his dunn cow horse, when suddenly the horse and calf turned in one direction and Starr kept going in the opposite. Results: a few mesquite trees disembarked, a black eye and disfigured nose for Starr; no damage to calf or horse.

Holman Boyd has purchased a fine registered Jersey heifer which he plans to enter in the shows this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Dean and little daughter moved this week to Tulsa, Okla., where Granville will enter an aviation school. For a number of years Mr. Dean has been employed by the General Crude Oil Co.

Miss Geraldine Henderson, a student at a business college in Abilene visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Henderson on Mother's Day.

We are informed that Mr. and Mrs. Ben Maberry who recently moved to Grand Prairie are moving back to their farm near Hamlin this week.

In two more weeks, McCaulley school will recess for the summer months.

Mrs. Jessie Martin and daughter of Seymour are visiting this week in the home of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Mustani.

Fisher County is to raise $275.00 for the Navy Relief society and McCaulley's amount is $25.00. Levi McCollum is in charge and any of this amount that you feel that you can give to this worthy cause will be accepted by Mr. McCollum.

If the boys in the Navy can face the guns of the Japs, surely we at home can contribute to this needed fund. The most we can do is little enough.

Several children of Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Dick were home on Mother's Day. Sorry we failed to get the names.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips and daughter of Munday, are visiting this week in the home of Mrs. Phillips' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Prather.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubry Stephenson and daughter of Abilene visited with his mother, Mrs. Etta Stephenson on Mother's Day; also visiting Mrs. Stephenson this week is Mrs. Phelix Patterson of Doyle City.

The war picture is looking better for the allied nations and the U. S. Navy is giving a good account of itself in the Coral sea. While we are ever mindful of conflict and death and destruction that is brought on by the war, we turn our attention to the milder political fight which is about to begin in Texas. After all we, the citizens of Texas, have the responsibility of electing men and women to guide the affairs of State who beyond a doubt should be leaders in whom the people have every confidence.

James V. Allred and Dan Moody have announced for the Senate and of course our present Senator, W. Lee O'Daniel, is expected to soon make his announcement. Now folks there you have it, Jimmy, Dan and W'Lee have all proved to be vote getters in the past. Both Moody and Allred are statesmen of no mean ability; both former governors and former Attorney Generals of Texas. And then there is O'Daniel—a former governor and flour salesman who over night swung his hill billy band into action and with his poems, songs and mournful tunes he was swept into the governor's mansion, but later he was elected as Junior United States Senator by the skin of his teeth, and now we shall see what we shall see.

We can't quite savvy why Jim Allred would quit a ten thousand dollar lifetime job to make the race for Senator, yet there are men who are burning with political ambitions and are never satisfied unless they are in the thick of the fight, and we kinda admire men who have that kind of spirit.

Now you take Dan Moody, one of the best campaigners and statesmen that Texas has ever known; a man who never pulls his punches, and who can hold his own with the best of orators; and there is one thing sure, if Dan Moody goes to the Senate, the people will be hearing from him. And there is one thing certain—we are going to hear two good speakers when either Dan or Jim takes the stump and you can bet your bottom dollar that they won't need mountain music to draw the crowds.

All Passes Must Pay The Defense Tax

THE HAMLIN HERALD

IN 37th YEAR — EVERY WEEK SINCE 1905

HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MAY 15, 1942

NUMBER 28

USO, [United Service Organization] Starts In Jones County for $2,380

Complete plans are now laid for raising the quota given Jones County in the nation wide campaign to raise $32,000,000, or approximately 10 cents per capita. The drive opens May 10 and runs through July 4th.

Tate May, Hamlin, county chairman, and Warren B. Tayman, of Stamford, county vice-chairman, are appointing their various committees and distributing publicly material. Regardless of the fact that the drive continues until July, plans for Jones County are to have the drive completed and "over the top" within a week from the opening date, according to Mr. May.

All Defense clubs throughout the county are being asked to co-operate and will conduct the campaign in their own communities, thus giving each person a chance to do his part.

USO clubs are operated throughout the nation and in many foreign places, serving where ever United States troops are concentrated. Mr. Tayman, urging a complete and immediate response of the campaign, states, "The people of Jones County are being given an opportunity to help their own boys in this drive. While this county does not have an USO center, we must remember that we have our full share of men in all types of service, and this is an opportunity to show them full appreciation. Jones county man power, eligible for active duty, have not been slackers; let us respond as completely."

R. G. Giles is chairman for the Stamford territory drive. Miss Lennie Greenway, Hamlin, has been named County treasurer.

In announcing this year's U S O campaign, Mr. May emphasized that more than 4,000,000 men would presently be in the armed forces of the United States, and that monthly visits of sailors, soldiers and Marines to United Service Organizations club houses already exceed two million. Service for troop-in-transit is also being carried out with great success, and meeting with hearty response from all types of enlisted men. Remote and isolated fields of operation are visited by trucks, completely equipped and laden with foodstuffs and countless articles which are welcomed by men away from home.

Folks of Hamlin, let's all give something for the entertainment and comfort of our soldier boys. Producers of cotton, and therefore all of what the people live upon.

Mayor Issues Cotton Week Proclamation

WHEREAS, the American cotton industry is making great and valuable contributions to the nation's total victory program by supplying numerous military and civilian needs for fiber and food, and

WHEREAS, the sturdiness and long life of cotton fabrics make their use by the civilian population directly in line with the national program for the conservation of materials, and

WHEREAS, the wearing of fresh, clean, washable cotton is an acknowledged and important stimulant of personal morale,

NOW, THEREFORE, as mayor of the City of Hamlin, Texas, I do hereby proclaim the period from May 15 to May 23, inclusive, to be NATIONAL COTTON WEEK, and urge my fellow citizens to join me in buying wisely from the stocks of durable and washable cottons of our local merchants, thereby making this Cotton Week another forward step in our victory program.

Joe L. Culbertson, Mayor

T. H. Price who has been very ill for several weeks, is reported greatly improved and should be able to get out among his friends.

Hamlin People Played Host To 100 Camp Barkeley Soldiers Sunday

As was indicated in last week's Herald, Hamlin had a creditable number of soldier boys over from Camp Barkeley for the past week end, and especially for the outstanding Sunday of the year, Mother's Day.

This effort to do something that would show our appreciation of the boys in service was sponsored by the Baptist Church but many others joined in to help entertain them, and while this was the first time on a big scale for Hamlin to entertain our soldiers. It proved very successful. If it should be done again, many valuable features of care and entertainment would be improved upon. To see the unlimited delight the boys had on their faces to be free from the army restrictions out of the dusty camp, mixing with mothers, fathers, brothers and sisters, and seeing folks like they have back home, was enough pay for any man or woman who used their time, their cars, their homes, food and various other expenditures from Saturday afternoon till late Sunday.

The report of this outing for the army boys is for several purposes, and we shall tell it as it happened and ended.

First, the committee was a bit disappointed in not getting a chartered bus or buses, or some kind of trucking conveyance. This left transportation up to private cars. The round trip meant about 220 miles of use. Those going with cars included: Tate May, Mac Brundage, Bowen Pope, Mrs. Garland Tumlin, J. W. Ezell, H. O. Cassle, W. C. Russell, Mrs. J. H. King, C. Alexander, Rev. H. E. East, J. W. Hines, Henry Albritton and George Malouf.

In addition to this, regular bus tickets were bought for eight men by T. E. Harden and Mrs. Tumlin.

Early Sunday morning, B. B. Campbell, using Eddie Jay's car, and W. L. Fletcher Jr., using his father's car, went over and brought nine boys to Hamlin.

The entrance to the camp was easy as a pre-arrangement had been made. If a car did not have "Hamlin" on it, all one needed to do was say, "Hamlin." A certain number of men had been told that they could get passes to Hamlin and to be ready by 2:30 P. M. at the Club Service building. When Hamlin cars began to arrive it seemed the whole U S army was there anxiously waiting to go "somewhere." Young men, older men, Southerners, Northerners, and several nationalities, including Chinese, Indians, Mexicans, and Europeans, all looking spick and span, proud and clean. Maybe the number seemed larger than it was because some had not seen so many uniformed boys looking for somebody to play host to them.

Anyway, it would have been a hard heart that did not feel sympathy for those boys, who had been in the camp just long enough to be homesick, and were all keyed up to go places, just like children. They knew, and we knew there was not room in those cars to haul them to Hamlin, so the look of disappointment began to tell on them, and the feeling of sympathy welled up in every Hamlinite's heart, that almost caused tears. Some of us had gone for just FOUR and then we began to say "We'll take five," and as the moments went on, the boys said "Can you haul six, we'll sit on each other to get to go." So SIX it was, and that made SEVEN, tires or no tires.

It was evident that ALL could not find room to ride, and no boy who had dressed up to go fishing could be more disappointed. Some Hamlin folks said, "We'll take one load over and come back for more." That was too much as time would not permit. There are times in the lives of men when they can not find words to express their gratitude, and this seemed to be the case with the soldier boys.

Hamlin was reached by 5:30 and when homes that were to take 2 or 4 and there stood 5, 6 or 7, the hosts said "What shall we do, we don't want to give up a single one, the boys said, "Just let us sleep on the floor, in a chair, anywhere, it's a change and we'll like it." So!

A good feed awaited them at the Baptist church, and after registering, and finding more homes, the boys were directed to the basement where loving mothers, some with boys on ships, in camps, in distant lands across the waters, waited upon the tables, in a peculiar silence, and one could often detect a tear under their eye glasses, when those keen-eyed boys looked up and said "thank you."

Arrangements had been planned to entertain the boys in the Lake Parks, where there were spacious lawns, boats, fishhooks, horse-back riding, and various other attractions and later games in which everyone could take a part were directed. Some of the boys met girls and there is no way better to "swamp" a soldier boy than a pretty girl. One soldier man, past 40 years kept his eye on a little girl tot and was heard to remark "Gee I keep looking at that child because I have several nieces and nephews, and I think of them so often." Some of the boys caught themselves calling the older Hamlin men "Dad". Hamlin fathers and mothers tried to play just that for every one of the boys, and the brothers and sisters did likewise (especially the sisters). Imagine how a girl feels to see a boy in uniform while her own brother or brothers are "somewhere" in a similar dress and maybe yearning for company in some distant land? So why not be considerate of the visiting soldier?

After toeing the mark in the camp, jumping to orders, bugle calls, and sleeping in tents on narrow cots, it must have been a relief to the men to get on a soft mattress, in a room with shades, pictures, soft chairs, flowers and perfume, and then be told, "Just sleep on boys till you are called about 8:00 A. M." Then oh my! Breakfast "at home." Biscuits, toast, ham, eggs, and everything that makes a boy's appetite tighter. Well, that was something.

Now let your ear down close to the lips of some folks, and they will be heard saying, "Some of those boys are toughs, maybe single, maybe married, maybe they gave the right names and maybe not." Well, buddy not all of the guys and feminists about Hamlin are angels by a jug full. Suppose occasionally a fellow becomes your "lot" to entertain and he is not an angel, what of it? He is still doing more to win a war for freedom than some persons who might pull up their pants legs full of guile to keep from soiling their hems on a soldier boy who may die for your safety. No sir-e-e buddy, the man in uniform is good enough to sit at your table if he is good enough to fight that American tables may continue to have plenty. Let 'em in while you can. If any son it not as good as he ought to be, he should be better by having the comforts and encouragement of your home.

Sunday was a big day, for the boys. Many of them came to the Baptist church wearing red roses, and quite a few with white. "Mother" for all of them, be they pure Anglo-American, Indian, European, was on their minds, and somewhere on memory's walls were fond pictures as they worshipped in the morning services, regardless of what church edifice they were in. Sitting with new friends, men, women, children, being honor guests was quite different to that of being in an audience of one drab uniform. In the audience were men with devotion, charming voices, members of their home choirs, bible readers, scholars as well as humble underprivileged boys. Yes, this was truly a cross-section of the young manhood of the United States, 23 States were represented, and Hawaii. But most of them were from the North and they found the usual Texas generous hospitality and open friendliness.

Quite a few of the men were carried to hotels and cafes for the Sunday lunch (but all had to be back in camp that night. So the week end for them in Hamlin closed with a repeated attempt to tell the people how much they enjoyed being there.

LETTER FROM CHAPLIN

Mr. Tate May, Hamlin, Texas.

May I take this opportunity to convey to you, and through you, to the members of your committee, the gratitude and thanks of the chaplin's corps of the 90th Infantry Division, for the fine outing that you gave our boys on the Mother's Day week end? It meant a great deal to the boys, and I'm sure that when they learn of it, it will mean a lot to the Mothers of these boys too, that they could spend the day within a family circle, even though far from their homes.

Such week ends in private homes, as you provided, constitute a great morale builder. It was thus, a fine friendly and patriotic thing to do; quite in accord with the Spirit of Hamlin.

Most sincerely yours,
Chaplin Hamilton H. Kellogg

Colored Men to Play Ball Sunday, May 16

The colored fellows, so says Geo. Rivers, Manager of the Hamlin Black Eagles, are going to play Anson's Black Birds in Hamlin City Park Sunday at 3:30 P. M.

Rivers says some of the proceeds will be given to the Jones County USO. Admission 15c and 25c.

Rush To Get Your Driver's License

Austin—Nine hundred thousand Texas drivers' licenses have been issued under the new driver's license law since last October 1st, State Police Director Homer Garrison announced today.

This is considerably less than half the 2,250,000 licenses which are expected to be issued by the end of September, Garrison said, warning that an unmanageable rush will occur late in the summer unless the rate of applications is speeded up immediately.

"The Driver's License Division is issuing only 160,000 licenses a month now, and is prepared to give rapid service," Garrison said. "If the applications continue to come in at their present rate, the number of applications each month will have to jump to 250,000 or 300,000 in July, August and September to meet the deadline."

Applications now are being accepted from any holder of an operator's license regardless of its serial number.

Feed Burns

O. L. Cohorn who lives on the Delk farm east of Hamlin, lost a fine stack of bundled feed Sunday night.

The stack was near the residence and for a time the high wind threatened the house, barn and all out-buildings.

The Hamlin Fire Boys were called and fortunately enough, water was at hand to soon save the other stuff.

Mr. Cohorn is truly grateful for the part the Hamlin firemen played and offered them a nice check for $5.00.

Cotton Week Parade 4:30 P. M. Thursday

In an effort to emphasize the importance of cotton in this Hamlin community, a number of the Hamlin merchants are sponsoring a "Cotton Style Street Parade" on Hamlin's main street at 4:30 P. M. Thursday of next week.

It is too early now to indicate just what all this parade will have, but the dry goods merchants, especially are inviting all who will to furnish something. There will no doubt be plenty of band music by Director Jenkins and his High school musicians.

Cotton products will be the theme and the parade will be just as good as the public can make it. Don't forget, 4:30 P. M., next Thursday.

Corporal Fred H. Brunson, son of S. T. Brunson of Hamlin, has been promoted to grade of sergeant, according to an announcement at Midland Army Flying School, largest of the U. S. Army Air Corps' bombardier training schools.

D. L. Riddle Died Thursday, May 7th

D. L. Riddle, who had lived in Hamlin since 1918, passed away at his home in Northeast Hamlin at 12:35 A. M., Thursday, May 7, at the age of 73 years. He was a native of Tennessee.

Mr. Riddle and his family moved to Texas in 1902 and to Hamlin in 1918. He was a farmer and in later years was engaged in mattress making. Surviving are his wife, who before her marriage was Mary Majors of Tennessee; three sons, W. A. Riddle of Amarillo and J. W. and M. G. Riddle of Hamlin; four daughters, Mrs. Lillie Bonard of Amarillo; Mrs. Jim Perry of Swenson; Mrs. Elsie Early Ashley of Groom, and Mrs. L. E. Tankersley of Hamlin. Two sons died in early life. Also there were twenty grand children and ten great children.

Mr. Riddle was a member of the Church of Christ and at that church the funeral was held on Thursday.

The Barrow Company had charge and interment was in East Cemetery.

Local Golfers Started Tournament Wed., 13

O. G. Harvey, tournament chairman for the Lake View Golf Club, announces the starting of the four weeks City Tournament the past Wednesday.

All entrants pay $1.00 each to be used as prizes, and all prizes will be paid off in War Stamps.

Another thing, Bert Pribble, president of the Club, will pay the Red Cross $1.00 each for every golf player who enters—this is Bert's personal contribution. (Buddy) here is your chance—play after paying your fee and the larger the number of entrants, the larger the prizes.

If you do not understand all about it, talk with O. G. Harvey.

"Cotton Freshness" for Fighting Trim Key Word In Hamlin For One Week

Every year for some time a certain week of each year has been designated as "COTTON WEEK". Beginning today, Friday May 15, through the 23rd of May is "Cotton Freshness" week.

If there is a "Cotton Community" in Texas it is Hamlin. This county would be dealt a hard blow if it had no cotton. Jones County is generally high up in the list of producer of cotton, and therefore all people of this section should be ready to co-operate with every concerted effort to encourage the use of our chief product.

In some countries they have "Onion Week," or "Grape Week," or some other name characteristic of what the people live up.

In Hamlin, with J. E. Moody, as the leading sponsor, Hamlin merchants will feature everything possible in cotton wearables next week. So watch for the posters saying "Cotton Freshness". That means that there is no other material in all the world that makes for neater, fresher, easy-wearing, easy kept clothing than cotton. There is no other plant in all the world that affords more things for humanity than does the cotton plant. And with all that being true, there is perhaps no other section of all the world that produces more or better cotton for general purposes than right here in West Texas.

There is no plant of agricultural fields that gives humanity more valuable than does that of cotton. It is a southland product by nature.

So with the opening of this Friday and all next week, watch your fellowman, or woman, and see whether or not they are using cotton or some other product. Note how clean and cool the cotton wear is this next week. Notice in the stores, in the homes, everywhere and see what is made of something besides cotton, and then figure out a way it may be changed to "Cotton Freshness". Is there any dress prettier than a cool fresh cotton frock? Take especial notice of the kinds of stockings the women wear during the next few days. Here's a tip . . . believe it or not . . . ladies really look neat and fresh in cotton products hose . . . and pretty hose are the key point to be attained in the attractions of any woman.

Make your presents this week in some kind of cotton goods. Really Texas people alone can add many thousands of bales of cotton consumption if they would insist on "it must be cotton." Wouldn't it be fine if automobile tires could be made entirely out of cotton? Shoes and hats can be made nicely out of cotton.

So next week and for that matter, let's see how completely we can dress in all-cotton. Only the soles of your shoes need be other than cotton. Watch the windows for cotton ideas, cotton displays.

PURPOSE OF COTTON WEEK

Cotton Week is not a commercial gain week. It is an educational week. An effort to create in the minds of the "smart" that it is "smart" to wear cotton fabrics. It is clean to wear cotton clothes. Cotton clothes are easily laundered, and easily creased, and inexpensive.

"A Bit of Paper"—

A crumpled bit of paper was sent speeding to a lonely but determined youth in one of Uncle Sam's Naval Training stations today, and officers who read the hurried scrawl the scrap of paper bore, believe an American classic was penned in the parting moments of a father and son.

As noble as the advice Hamlet received from his father and as American as the flag was the crumpled letter which the boy lost in the Navy Recruiting Station in the Post Office at Wichita Falls.

The letter was from Jim H. Canon, Paducah, Texas, to his 19-year old son, Jimmy Henry Canon Jr., and written to the boy before he left Wichita Falls to come to Dallas for his final examination and to be sworn into service.

Brief and poignant was the letter of an American to an American son: "Dear Son:

"I am sending you the papers which give my consent for you to join the Navy. I wish you the best of luck, and I want you to write your mother as often as you can. We both hate to see you go, but you go with our best wishes. We want you to try to be one of the best men in the Navy.

"Son, I would like for you to try and qualify as a gunner, then maybe you will have the privilege of firing a broadside right where it will do the most good—into a Jap ship.

"You are passing out of our hands now and will be under the care of the U. S. Navy. Always remember to obey your superior officers. Be honest, apply yourself one hundred percent to your job—and do that job well. It will be a long hard fight. We are counting on you and several million like you to do the job.

"Answer right back, we will be wanting to hear from you.

"Love,
DAD"

Jimmie was transferred to a Naval Training Station on April 4, his letter turned up in the middle of Navy files at Wichita Falls today. How it got there, no one knows. But the letter is going on to Jimmie—it should be a big help in trying times to come.

"That letter," declared Lt. L. H. Ridout, Jr., officer in charge of the Dallas Recruiting Station, "is the type of encouragement boys need from home. America is just as strong as the number of dads and sons it has, like Jimmie senior and Jimmie Jr."

Jimmie and his father call Delvin, Texas, their home town and it is there the family reunion will be held when "Jimmie comes marchin' home."

Old Age Assistance Blind People And Dependent Children

Austin, May 6—Texas Old Age Assistance rolls for May gained by 2,419 recipients above all losses due to death and ineligibility, as compared with 1,643 the previous mo., increasing from 169,905 to 172,324 the Department of Public Welfare announced today. The department will mail next Friday, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday checks totaling $3,374,649, grants averaging $19.58. Received during April were 3,187 new applications for Old Age Assistance.

The number of blind persons to receive aid in May increased from 2,816 in April to 2,999. A total of $68,661 will be distributed in average grants of $22.89. The department received 194 new applications for blind aid during April.

The Aid to Dependent Children rolls continued to show the highest increase. A total of 2,986 families were added to the rolls to bring the April figure of 9,643 families up to 12,629 this month, representing 26,773 children. Grants for May average $20.73 per family and will total $261,806. The department accepted 3,093 new applications for Aid to Dependent Children during the month.

Mrs. Doc Griffin spent Mother's Day in Abilene with her son, Cleve Griffin and wife, and her daughter, Miss Agatha Griffin. Among other guests in the home was Mrs. Cleve Griffin's mother, Mrs. A. F. Ruth-erford.

Clyde Kite from Camp Wolters, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kite, spent the past week end with them in Hamlin, and enjoyed the association with the men from Camp Barkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Blythe and son of San Angelo were here Saturday and Sunday to visit Mrs. W. J. McGee and Rev. and Mrs. Dan Jones.

BOYD CHAPEL CHIRPS

By Mrs. James Ferguson

An all day meeting with dinner on the ground was held at the Baptist church Sunday. A group of Hardin-Simmons University students were in charge of both morning and afternoon services. Miss Brown, a missionary, brought the devotional followed by Rev. Moore who brought the 11 o'clock message. The afternoon devotional was given by Rev. Lacy Davis and followed with a message by Rev. Batie. Rev. Bobbie Fail directed the song services.

At the evening service, after a short playlet, "Appreciating Mother," given by home young people, Rev. Moore preached.

Private Boyd Cagle of Camp Barkeley and Mrs. Cagle visited in the home of Mrs. Willie Tabb Sunday. Mrs. Cagle remained for a few days visit. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Buster Easley of Hawley and Mrs. Maggie Easley of near Anson.

Mrs. J. E. Foot of Abilene visited the Boyd Chapel church services Sunday.

Mrs. Junie Brown of near Anson spent last week end with her sister Mrs. T. T. Bingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Maberry and family of Sylvester visited in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Holden and Mrs. I. E. McClure Sunday. Mrs. McClure, who has been quite ill for several days, is better at this writing.

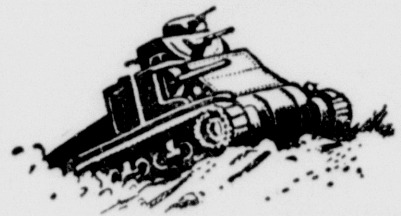

Those visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cornelius Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Flenington and family of Wise Chapel, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Easley and family of near Anson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fail of Hawley attended church services here Sunday. Mrs. Clarence Hill of Hitson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Haught, who was taken to the hospital in Temple last week for treatment, is doing as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Holden and Carl Holden and family of Abilene attended a picnic of the Routh family Sunday at the Hamlin Park.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. McCray and little daughter Dorothy Helen of Idalou, came down for the past week end to visit old friends. Mr. McCray is farming near Idalou.

ATTACK! ATTACK! ATTACK!

America's attacking on both the fighting front and the home front today! We're giving the Axis a bitter taste of what's to come. We're fighting the inflationary fifth column that blows prices sky high here at home, too. And every one of us who saves at least 10% of his pay in War Bonds is an important soldier in the attack! Join the attack yourself!

Two McCaulley Men Hasten to Aircraft Building In Tulsa

On May 5, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Dean, and Mr. Dean's sister, Thelma Dean, all of McCaulley went to Tulsa, Okla., on a short visit to see Mr. and Mrs. Buford Dean, formerly of Hamlin, who are now making their home in Tulsa. Buford Dean is attending an aircraft school there. Roy Brown of Hamlin accompanied the party to Tulsa. On returning home Granville Dean and Roy Brown made hasty arrangements and have departed for Tulsa with their families to enter an aircraft school there. We wish these two families success.

Guy Wilson of Stamford and Miss Clydene Wilson of Abilene spent the past week end visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Wilson. Miss Wilson had as her guest Sergeant Charles D. Fuller of Camp Barkeley.

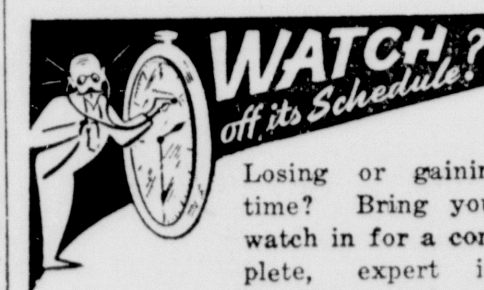

Fine china made from Texas clays in University of Texas ceramics laboratories was one of the featured exhibits at the University student power show May 8th.

Governor Signs Cotton Week Proclamation

Gov. Coke Stevenson, recognizing the part that Texas' greatest agricultural product will play in winning the war, signs a proclamation designating May 15 to 23 as National Cotton Week in Texas. Looking on is Luther Sharp of Agricultural Trade Relations, chairman of the National Cotton Week Committee directing the program for the Texas Statewide Cotton Committee. Cooperating in National Cotton Week are farmers, manufacturers, chain stores, independent merchants, wholesalers, extension service, women's clubs and other groups.

COLOR HARMONY MAKES BETTER NEIGHBORS

Paint Styles Should
Harmonize With Other
Homes In Neighborhood

Your house must be considered in relation to other homes in your neighborhood if you want to get the best effect in color harmony. The "guide" below tells you which colors to use and which to avoid in order to make your home a "good neighbor."

YELLOW

Never use next to red, yellow, dark grey. Yellow kills dark grey and only favors yellow itself. This also means don't paint grey if your neighbor paints yellow.

WHITE

If all adjacent homes are in color and your neighbor's is white, don't repeat. It emphasizes the larger and belittles the smaller. If all are white, keep yours white too. One in color is just as offensive.

RED

Avoid red if your neighbors' houses are green or yellow. If many others on the street are red use red too as one odd colored house will not complement the others.

BROWN

Your house in brown is safe in all cases. Of course the trim should be carefully considered. Repeating the trim of your neighbor's home is particularly offensive.

GREEN

Watch out for adjacent red houses! The charm of green is not to be underestimated. It is beautiful when surrounded by "Aspen" or other light green trees or foliage.

TAN

Tan is safe everywhere except next to yellow. Yellow gives even rich tan a greyed effect. Exteriors of houses should always appear freshly painted even when rustic effect is called for.

Methodist Conference For Abilene District

The Abilene District Conference of the Methodist church was held in Albany the 12, and 13th. Dr. C. A. Bickley, district superintendent, presided over the meeting. Thirty charges of the district were represented. Entertainment was furnished by the members of the Albany Methodist church.

Dr. Angie Smith, pastor of the First Methodist church of Dallas, delivered the conference sermon on Tuesday night, and Dr. J. O. Haymes, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist church, delivered the message Wednesday at noon. Splendid reports were given by all the charges throughout the district. About 200 were in attendance. The next district conference will be held at Baird.

Those who attended from Hamlin, were Mrs. D. O. Sauls, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carlton, and Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Harrell. Those who attended reported a very helpful and enjoyable conference.

Cotton and Cottonseed Products For All Who Work and Fight For Freedom

Fortunately for all, December 7 found America with valuable stockpiles of cotton lint—with farmers who can produce cotton more abundantly, probably, than any other crop, with more than 400 Cotton Oil Mills equipped and ready to convert cottonseed into Cotton Linters for explosives—Cottonseed Oil for food—Cottonseed Meal, Cake and Hulls for livestock feed.

All of these products are helping win this war. BUT, they can also be produced abundantly—in far larger amounts than they are now being produced—so that all civilians, as well as all in our armed forces, may have an abundance of cotton and cottonseed products. Use cotton and cottonseed products for their familiar uses and for new uses to replace scarcer, costlier materials. Put cotton and cottonseed products on your "must use" list—during NATIONAL COTTON WEEK, MAY 15-23, and throughout 1942.

National Cotton Week Finds Us "In Fighting Trim" Producing for Uncle Sam and You

Your local Cotton Oil Mill, like all Americans, is proud to be playing an important part in winning this war. Our products are going into munitions on the battlefield, and in the sea and air—into fats that keep Americans fighting and working—into the feeding of livestock that produce "Food for Victory."

We take pride, also, in being able to render efficient service to this community—in peace or war—and invite you to give us every opportunity to serve you more.

War Material Shortage Limits Telephone Service

You probably have heard about certain government restrictions on telephone service and equipment now in effect. We should like to tell you a little more about these restrictions—why they are necessary, and what they will mean to you.

The reason for them is simple and complete. They are to save materials which are needed to fight the war.

What will they mean to you, the telephone user?

If you have a telephone now, they mean no change except that in many Texas cities affected by war growth you may have to have other parties on your line. And, in all cases, you can't get an extension telephone in your home if you haven't one already.*

For people who have no telephones and want them, or for present users who move to new locations, we shall supply at least party-line service wherever there are now enough lines and switchboards. But in general, where new construction of this type would be necessary, we shall not be able to provide service.*

This will mean inconvenience and perhaps hardship to a few people now. As time goes on it will probably mean inconvenience and hardship to more people, but we need your help and sympathetic understanding in this important step to save the maximum of materials for the war.

Beside the great savings in materials already made by substitution and wartime engineering, the new restrictions will mean that more lead, iron, steel, zinc, copper, and rubber used in telephone equipment will now go into arms.

In spite of all this, and while telephone service may not be available to all who want it, we believe we can keep the service up to a high standard. At any rate, we shall do our level best. These difficulties are something that neither the government nor the telephone companies can help. They are part of the price of protecting liberty.

*Except for those cases where the need for telephone service has been recognized by the War Production Board as necessary for defense or public health, welfare or security.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

(By BOYCE HOUSE)

An open letter to Chas. A. Lindbergh:

"Last summer and fall, in long speeches over expensive nationwide hookups (I don't know who paid for them), you said that America was safe—that the oceans made an attack on us impossible.

"Many thousands of Americans—perhaps millions—believed you. As a result, half-hearted efforts slowed down our national defense.

"Then, on Dec. 7, Pearl Harbor gave the lie to your utterances and the blood of 3,000 brave Americans was shed.

"Since then, 50 American ships have been sunk within sight of our shores and many heroes sleep in the depths of the oceans which you said were our unassailable security.

"We have waited long and in vain for a confession from you that you were wrong—that you are sorry now and that you want to apologize to the people of your native land whom you tried to mislead.

"Don't you think, before you mingle freely with your fellow Americans, that you should openly and publicly acknowledge that you were a dupe, unless you want us to think you were worse?

"If you do not do this, then I—speaking as one American citizen who resents your words which helped to cost the lives of hundreds of American soldiers and sailors—shall ask of my government that you be placed in a concentration camp until the war, which you said couldn't happen, is over.

"Boyce House"

An Austin urchin has found an unusual way to pick up a bit of change. He enters the lobby of a hotel with newspapers under his arm—they are many hours old but they provide the pretext for his coming in. He goes up to a group and, singling out one of the men, he says:

"If I can tell you your first name your birthday, the name of your wife and the name of the first woman you ever loved, would it be worth a quarter and if I don't tell you all this, you don't pay me a thing?"

He says it all in one breath and the amused "prospect" says, "All right." So the boy tells him:

"Your first name was baby, your birthday was the day you were born, the name of your wife is Mrs. and the name of the first woman you ever loved was your mother."

The other men guffaw and the victim hands over the quarter.

"Since he is himself a wool growing Texas rancher and is also a governor facing an election campaign, we believe Governor Stevenson made a courageous as well as a sound statement the other day when he said the price limit set by administrators on wool is too high," says the Fort Worth Press, editorially. "There certainly is no war 'gimme' there. Perhaps Governor Stevenson and the other growers who agree with him remember the last war when wool prices skyrocketed and then plummeted so that the whole industry was upset. Governor Stevenson recognizes that too high prices mean inflation and that inflation means later trouble."

A former citizen of San Antonio, who now runs a hotel out on the Pacific Coast, says: "California is too far from Texas ever to amount to very much."

Being in Austin—especially when the legislature is in session—is like having a ringside seat at an unending, free show.

Notables, such as Kaltenborn, Senator Pepper of Florida, and Helen Keller who was born deaf and blind, are invited to speak to the legislature and the galleries are, of course, open to the public.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY
WASHINGTON

May 1, 1942

TO THE PEOPLE OF TEXAS:

This week a new campaign for the sale of War Bonds and Savings Stamps is under way throughout the Nation. It is the War Bond Quota Campaign.

It is urgently necessary that you double the rate at which you are now buying War Bonds and Stamps. This will mean the sale direct to individual Americans of War Bonds and Stamps to the amount of not less than one billion dollars every month.

One billion dollars a month is the National quota. It is equal to one-tenth the combined incomes of all Americans.

This money is needed to buy the tools of war for your fighting forces. It will not pay for all of them. Our war expenditures now are at the rate of about FOUR BILLIONS a month, and they are growing daily. But a billion dollars a month direct from the people will make all-out production possible. Without it we cannot do our best; without it we cannot put forth our full effort.

It is desperately needed for another reason. We can't fight a war and at the same time live and spend as usual. There are not enough goods to go around—the things we buy with money. If we go on spending at the 1941 scale, we'll be robbing the fighting man to add to our own comfort or pleasure. We'll be driving up the cost of living for all of us. We'll be imposing dire hardships on our neighbors.

What is asked of you is ten per cent of your earnings—a tithe for Liberty. It is not a tax; it is not even a contribution; it is a loan at interest, for your use and protection later.

Your Government asks you to cut down your expenditures, TO SAVE—your boys on the firing line and in the training camps, through your Government, ask you to save so that they may have what they need to win YOUR WAR for you—America asks you to save; to SAVE TO WIN THE WAR; to buy War Bonds and Stamps up to not less than ten per cent of your income.

Is Liberty worth it? Is Democracy worth it? Is America worth it? I think I know your answer.

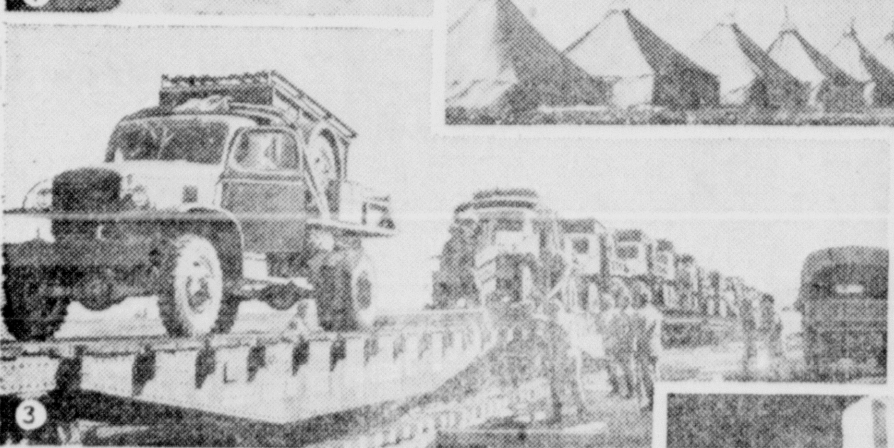

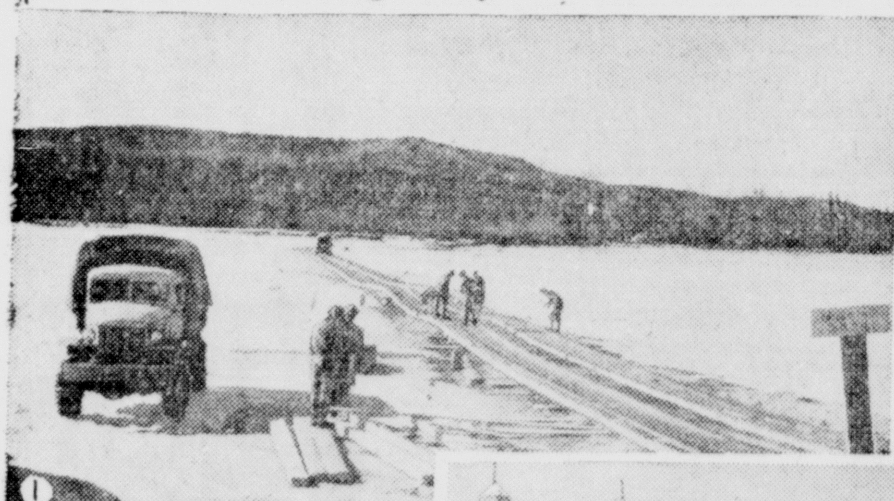

Sincerely,

Amogenkau Jr

The above letter was sent to this newspaper by Secretary Morgenthau in Washington. We publish it in the interest of the War Bond Quota Campaign and earnestly recommend that all our readers do their share in the tremendous job ahead of financing the War effort.

Rugged Men, Mighty Machines Build U.S.-Alaska Highway Across Canada

ANOTHER United States-Canadian war cooperation project is being rushed to completion. It is the road starting at St. John in northern British Columbia, and connecting with Alaska. Adequate roads and rail facilities for the transportation of troops and supplies were existent up to Fort St. John, but now a land route from there on is opened across the Canadian wilds.

The United States Government is paying for the building and wartime maintenance of the highway and Canada is supplying all necessary facilities, including the right of way for the road. Canada previously paid for the building and maintenance of the completed airline from Edmonton, Alberta, to Alaska, which is now in operation.

In spite of the bitter winter weather, natural obstacles or human failings, the relentless drive to complete the highway has pressed northward. Across frozen Peace River a plank highway was laid (Photo

On one occasion, delegates of the Alabama-Coushatta Indian reservation in East Texas were visitors in the House of Representatives. They were in native costume. Several law makers were made honorary members of the tribe and were presented with Indian head-dresses, after which the red men gave several dances and the medicine man prayed that the new members of the tribe would be well and good, and kill "plenty deer."

1) to carry heavily-laden truck trains at a wary pace of three miles an hour. These trucks pick up supplies and road-making machinery at Dawson Creek (Photo 3), which is the end of railroad facilities. Giving up all comforts to facilitate speed, the Canadian truckers operate a non-stop, 36-hour run from Dawson Creek to Fort Nelson, virtually living in their trucks. These drivers relieve each other every 10 hours, sleeping during their relief period (Photo 5) in coffin-like boxes atop the driver's cab.

Typical of the hard-fisted, corner-cutting American engineers working against the terrific odds of a Canadian winter is Felix Murawski (Photo 2), of Oklahoma City. He strikes a pose that designates our cheerful defiance of the stubborn bush country. The engineers and workers live in tent colonies at the scene of their work. Although the temperature sometimes fell as low as 50 below zero, snowfall was light this year. The frozen ground gave way before expert hands handling bulldozers, caterpillars, graders and drag lines (Photo 4) as these hardy men carved out a narrow pilot road which now is being widened and surfaced.

And now, through the foresight and cooperation of two democratic countries, a practical link in continental defense between the U. S. and Alaska as well as a great improvement through a previously wild and rugged country is nearing completion.

Entertained With Picnic At Lake Cabin

On Friday evening the Optimisses Club members honored their husbands with a picnic at the Lake cabin of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Vaughan.

Fried chicken, black-eye peas, pickles, corn, salads, rolls, cake, punch and bottled drinks were served buffet style.

After supper in games of 42, Mrs. Gerry Richardson won high score for the women and Dub Burgess and John Walton tied for the men.

Those present were: Messrs and Mmes. F. E. Barnes, J. C. Jenkins, E. J. Whaley, John Walton, Ross Fomby, Dub Burgess, Pat Marlowe, M. O. Kimmey, L. C. Barnes, C. B. McGough, Tom Vaughan, Mrs. O. G. Harvey, and Mrs. Gerry Richardson.

McCauley H. D. Club

The H. D. Club of McCauley met in the home of Mrs. L. B. Miers on May 6th.

Members answered roll call with "How to Make Friends."

After roll call recreation was given by Mrs. Oliver Lee.

The program was on "Consideration for Others."

The charm of fine manners was given by Mrs. J. A. Jackson.

Consideration for Others, round table discussion.

Miss Hipp, Agent, is being transferred to Coleman. Mrs. Della Fancher gave a quilt top. Mrs. Hendon furnished the cotton. Mrs. Kemp carded the batts, and the club donated the lining and did the quilting.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. C. Jackson. The agent will give a demonstration on cheese making.

Mrs. W. C. Lee's name was drawn for the kitchen shower.

The hostess served refreshments to the following visitors: Mesdames Ira Parker, Dave Maberry, Betty Jo Masser, Roscoe Perryman, Bonnie McCasland, Tom Nall, and Louie Jones. Members: Mmes. W. C. Jackson, Bill Maberry, Oliver Lee, Carrol Lee, D. F. Maberry, Ben Kemp, Frank Kemp, Sue Miers, Horace Barton, Della Fancher, Ted Abbott, Louis Boyd, Ellis Eivens, J. A. Red Cross Women Are Working Hard

A first aid instructors' school to serve five counties for Hamlin or Stamford, and effort to raise $400 Jones County's quota of $6,000 budget set for ten counties in Berkeley's Camp and Hospital Red Cross Service Council, were two projects receiving attention of Jones County Red Cross executive board in monthly meeting at Hawley, Monday night.

Byron E. Lewis, Stamford vice-chairman, presided at the session in the absence of O. A. Dean, Anson, chairman, Anson, Hamlin, Hawley and Stamford were represented in attendance.

Intense interest in first aid instruction and lack of certified instructors to meet class demands were pointed out by W. O. Haynes, Anson, vice-chairman and first aid instructor, and by Mrs. L. M. York, production and volunteer special services chairman. Jones County Chapter will attempt to allocate an instructors' school, to include Haskell, Stonewall, Fisher, Shackelford counties, for either Hamlin or for Stamford. A Red Cross official will hold the school which will prepare persons who have had standard and advanced first aid for teaching Red Cross classes. An advanced first aid class began in Anson Tuesday night to make eligible a group for the proposed instructor's course, and such a course has already been offered in Stamford.

Substantial production work in Hawley and in Hamlin was reported by Mrs. Fannie Meeker and Mrs. C. F. Butcher, vice-chairmen in those towns. Increased production in many communities was indicated by Mrs. York's report, with especial mention of the Busy Bee Sewing Club at Avoca which turned in 18 filled Red Cross kit bags in ten days.

Fifty dollars for storm-ridden Crowell was among disbursements of Jones County Red Cross Chapter shown in the treasurer's report sent in by Mrs. Stephen Bennett, Stamford. Balances are $422.17, production fund; $1,245.75, general fund; and $122.81, junior Red Cross fund. Besides the fifty dollars sent by the Chapter, Hamlin Red Cross workers sent several boxes of clothing for Crowell relief.

The county production room in Stamford is the site for June 8th meeting of Red Cross executive board, Room 13 in Oliver Street elementary school.

WISE CHAPEL NEWS

By Catherine Drake

We have had lots of sand the last two days. All the farmers are busy with their crops.

The writer has been out of her community the last two weeks. So news is scarce this week.

We are glad to see Mrs. Johnnie Agnew up and around again.

Miss Faye Neal spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reynolds of McCauley.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Flenniken and family spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cornelius of Boyd Chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Neal and family spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. A. G. Bingham and family of Neinda.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bond and son of Flat Top and I. C. Bond of Hamlin took supper with their parents Sunday night, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bond.

Miss Juanita Reynolds of McCauley spent Thursday till Saturday with Faye Neal.

Mrs. L. Bush of Hamlin spent Friday night with Connie Drake and sisters.

Mrs. Bush and daughter, Mrs. Lillie Wilmon and family left Saturday for Texas City to make their home.

Miss Joyce Hudson, a student in N. T. S. T. C., spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Hudson.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Parker and children of Dallas, are visiting her mother, Mrs. B. S. Ferguson.

Expression of Thanks

We wish to express our appreciation to our friends for the kindness and sympathy shown us in our sorrow at the time of the death of our father, John Scott.

POT SHOTS FROM McCAULLEY

BY GEO. DARDEN

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rhoten had as their guests their children and grandchildren on Mother's Day. They were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gist of Sweetwater, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson and son of McCaulley, Mr. and Mrs. George Rhoten and family of Rotan, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rhoten, Mr. and Mrs. John Rhoten of Plasterco; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mahaffey and children of Royston and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Meeks and children. All children were present except Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rhoten who visited in Abilene on Mother's Day.

Allie Ray Hennington, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Hennington spent Mother's Day with his parents. Also at home was a daughter, Emma Sue. Both are students at McMurry.

"What about citizenship grades?" an article appearing in "Texas Outlook," an educational journal, and written by H. P. Powers, Supt. of McCaulley schools.

Some one registered at McCaulley for their sugar ration books and carried with them cards along with stamp books. The numbers of the cards are 299855 and 299856. It is very necessary that these cards be turned in; otherwise owners of the books will be unable to get their books.

A large crowd attended the Mother's Day program at the Methodist church Sunday. Large pot plants were awarded to oldest and youngest mothers present. The oldest mother was Mrs. J. H. Brawner and the youngest was Mrs. Amuel Rector.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Massey of Plasterco have moved to Abilene where Mr. Massey will take up his work as salesman for a wholesale concern.

Nola and Dale Akins of Sweetwater, and Corine and Lillian Akins of Abilene spent Mother's Day in the home of parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Akins of McCaulley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brawner, E. C. Waldrop and Albert Jr. Galloway attended the funeral of Charles Randolph at Three Rivers last Thursday. Mr. Randolph was a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Brawner.

The Boy Scouts of McCaulley, Boyd Chapel and Plasterco attended a Boy Scout Rally at Big Spring last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Kemp and her daughter of Roby visited parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kemp Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Huff of Hamlin were Sunday visitors in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hub Parker.

The McCaulley P-T A is very proud of the improvements that have been made on the stage of the High school. The front curtains have been purchased and will soon add further beauty to a remodeled stage. Mrs. L. E. Rector is to be congratulated for her successful year as president of the P-T A. She has again been elected president. Other officers elected are Mrs. Louis Boyd, secretary; Mrs. Levi McCollum, treasurer; and Mrs. W. C. Jackson, vice-president.

Walter Winchell was right when he said: "The best way to serve the Mothers who gave us life, is to serve the country that gave us liberty." How many bonds and stamps are you buying? It takes the citizenship of our great country to produce for the boys who are fighting for you and me. Let's not let them down.

McCaulley and community have had fine rains. In fact, it rained so hard that many farmers will have to plant over.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Rogers of Dallas have been visiting parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rogers in McCaulley.

After shooting the questions to Starr Inzer about his skinned nose and black eye, we learn that Starr was after a calf on his dunn cow horse, when suddenly the horse and calf turned in one direction and Starr kept going in the opposite. Results: a few mesquite trees disembarked, a black eye and disfigured nose for Starr; no damage to calf or horse.

Holman Boyd has purchased a fine registered Jersey heifer which he plans to enter in the shows this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Dean and little daughter moved this week to Tulsa, Okla., where Granville will enter an aviation school. For a number of years Mr. Dean has been employed by the General Crude Oil Co.

Miss Geraldine Henderson, a student at a business college in Abilene visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Henderson on Mother's Day.

We are informed that Mr. and Mrs. Ben Maberry who recently moved to Grand Prairie are moving back to their farm near Hamlin this week.

In two more weeks, McCaulley school will recess for the summer months.

Mrs. Jessie Martin and daughter of Seymour are visiting this week in the home of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Mustani.

Fisher County is to raise $275.00 for the Navy Relief society and McCaulley's amount is $25.00. Levi McCollum is in charge and any of this amount that you feel that you can give to this worthy cause will be accepted by Mr. McCollum.

If the boys in the Navy can face the guns of the Japs, surely we at home can contribute to this needed fund. The most we can do is little enough.

Several children of Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Dick were home on Mother's Day. Sorry we failed to get the names.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips and daughter of Munday, are visiting this week in the home of Mrs. Phillips' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Prather.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubry Stephenson and daughter of Abilene visited with his mother, Mrs. Etta Stephenson on Mother's Day; also visiting Mrs. Stephenson this week is Mrs. Phelix Patterson of Doysie City.

It was a happy occasion for Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Maberry when they had all of their children home for Mother's Day. They were: Mrs. Newman Bender and son of San Bernadino, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Maberry and son of Corsi-

The war picture is looking better for the allied nations and the U. S. Navy is giving a good account of itself in the Coral sea. While we are ever mindful of conflict and death and destruction that is brought on by the war, we turn our attention to the milder political fight which is about to begin in Texas. After all we, the citizens of Texas, have the responsibility of electing men and women to guide the affairs of State who beyond a doubt should be leaders in whom the people have every confidence.

James V. Allred and Dan Moody have announced for the Senate and of course our present Senator, W. Lee O'Daniel, is expected to soon make his announcement. Now folks there you have it; Jimmy, Dan and W'Lee have all proved to be vote getters in the past. Both Moody and Allred are statesmen of no mean ability; both former governors and former Attorney Generals of Texas. And then there is O'Daniel—a former governor and flour salesman who over night swung his hill billy band into action and with his poems, songs and mournful tunes he was swept into the governor's mansion, but later he was elected as Junior United States Senator by the skin of his teeth, and now we shall see what we shall see.

We can't quite savvy why Jim Allred would quit a ten thousand dollar lifetime job to make the race for Senator, yet there are men who are burning with political ambitions and are never satisfied unless they are in the thick of the fight, and we kinda admire men who have that kind of spirit.

Now you take Dan Moody, one of the best campaigners and statesmen that Texas has ever known; a man who never pulls his punches, and who can hold his own with the best of orators; and there is one thing sure, if Dan Moody goes to the Senate, the people will be hearing from him. And there is one thing certain—we are going to hear two good speakers when either Dan or Jim takes the stump and you can bet your bottom dollar that they won't need mountain music to draw the crowds.
